Describe a skill you want to learn - Model answer 1

Introduction

It is essential to learn new skills in order to make our personality noticeable and attractive. And I feel glad to talk about this topic.

What was it?

At first, I used to travel everywhere by public transportation. Hence, it was difficult for me to reach on time. Then I decided to learn to drive.

How would you learn it? Or where can you learn it?

There are many training institutions in my city that provide car training. In fact, one of them is next to my house. So I will pay a visit there to ask about all the details. Apart from training, I can practice at night with my father also.

And explain why you want to learn it.

There are many justifications for learning this skill. Firstly, to get there on time by public transportation, I have to suffer a lot. Sometimes I have to wake up 3 hours prior to my morning lectures to reach my destined target. Secondly, I can take my family members wherever they want to. I mean, to travel together, we had to wait for our father to come, but now we don't have to. Last but not least, my travel costs will be reduced.

Conclusion

Now, I can utilize my traveling time for other tasks. This is a real-life skill for me.

Describe a skill you want to learn - Model answer 2

Introduction

Skills are the building blocks of our life. It determines part of our life. Well, there are various skills to be mastered.

What was it?

But I would like to talk about one such skill, which I surely want to learn, and that is sketching. I always feel that sketching on paper would allow me to express my ideas more clearly than painting or drawing.

How would you learn it?

I can learn by practicing drawing artistry. Actually, my main aim is to learn the basic structures of this skill. I also want to learn how to simply put my ideas on the sheet.

Where can you learn it?

There are several institutions in my town that furnish pedagogy on these subjects from the start. I think I will pay a visit to a few reputed ones, and then I will decide where to learn.

And explain why you want to learn it.

Sketching is one of the most emotive art forms. One can express his thoughts simply on paper. Drawing is my hobby, and whenever I feel upset or bored, I merely start to do crafts, as it works as a relaxation tool for me. Additionally, music with drawing works as icing on a cake for me. I have tried almost all the art forms but haven't tried this one, so I just want to learn to make my own masterpiece.

Conclusion

Well, it's good to learn different things as it will help us in a later phase or somewhere in the future. There is a saying that "education will not go to waste, as it will help you at any point in your life."
