

Describe a toy you liked in your childhood- Model answer 1

Introduction:

Toy is an object for the child to play with. It is a miniature replica of something. Toys play an important role in childhood days, which gives lots of memories. Though there are many kinds of toys, each one has their most favourite one.

What kind of toy is it?

Here I am going to talk about the toy that I would like to play with, the Barbie doll. It is the miniature Barbie girl, most of the girls find it fun to dress up their doll. Barbie dolls have a set of a few dresses, cosmetics etc. It gives more interest to them to play with the barbie doll. Though I have lots of Barbie dolls, I will buy one once I see a Barbie doll set with so many extra collections.

When did you receive it?

I was crazy about Barbie dolls. When I went to the supermarket with my parents, I asked them to buy it for me, but they refused. On my 8th birthday, my father had presented it to me as a surprise, the same doll which I asked him on that day. I was really shocked when my father gifted me, among so many gifts I liked my father's gift much.

How did you play it?

From that day on, I use this doll to play every time. My mother always scolds me to keep the doll away, because even while I am eating I used to carry the doll with me. I don't have any siblings so I play alone with that doll. I make my doll to bathe and I dress it up with the kit I have. I use some cosmetics to decorate it. Most of my holidays were spent with that doll, if we went on any vacation even I would carry it to places wherever we go.

How did you feel about it?

I don't feel alone whenever I play with it. In those days my one and only playing partner was my doll. I felt happy whenever I played with it. I used to share with my friend about the way I played with my doll. Still now I am collecting the doll with new sets which are invented now.

Conclusion:

Now as a mature girl, I think how crazy I was with the toy. But in those days it was the only toy I liked the most. Even now I have that doll in my bedroom cupboard , whenever I see it gives lots of memories.

Introduction:

One of the societal norms is giving presents to children. The majority of children's playable things are toys. Children simply adore maintaining a whole shelf or drawer full of various toys. These toys are typically presented to them for special occasions, as well as with child's request.

What kind of toy is it?

The toy I used to play a lot is Top. It is a toy which mostly boys used to play with. It can be said as an occasional toy, because it is more popular when the schools are in summer holidays. It is more popular among the village children, they used to play it often whenever they were free.

When did you receive it?

Whenever I go to my native place, my cousins will buy it for me. We used to play it everyday during our vacation. It is a fun-filled game. They bought it a day before I was going to arrive. So, we can play together joyously.

How did you play it?

Usually, I play with my cousins, we used to play everyday during our summer holidays. They have taught me first, how to tie the rope and everything. We thoroughly enjoyed those days. Sometimes it becomes boring to play. At that time, we treat this game as competition, like whose top spins most. Most of the time my elder cousin won the game.

How did you feel about it?

I enjoyed it a lot by playing with them. They made my holidays a joy filled one. First, I had a fear of playing it but now it has become easier for me, now I am the one who won the game among my friends.

Conclusion:

We can play it both as indoor and outdoor games. If a gang of friends played it as a competition, they played it as an outdoor game. Most of them played it as an outdoor game.

Describe a toy you liked in your childhood - Model answer 3

Introduction:

All children's formative years involve toys in a big way. Both the brain and the body benefit from their improvement of motor skills. As a kid, I adored playing with toys. In fact when I got home from school, I spent most of my time in a room with toys.

What kind of toy is it?

It is an electronic toy race car, it has a red colour. It has a full set with miniature roads, trees etc like the roadside scenery. It is a car with a 360 degree remote control. We can control the car in the place where we are. It has more features like rotating and changing the colour.

When did you receive it?

My Uncle bought it for me when he came to India. He was working in the US, so whenever he came to India he brought something to me, toys, chocolate etc. This time he brought an electronic car to me. It is the most expensive toy I have. I used to play it once I got back from school, with my younger brother who was 2 years old.

How did you play it?

Most of the time, I used to play with my younger brother, but he was a small boy so he would not play with me fully. So, I played with myself in my playing room, where I kept all my toys.

How did you feel about it?

I show it to my friends as pride, none of my friends have these much expensive toys to play with. But sometimes I share my toys with some of my friends. I don't allow anyone to touch my car without my permission.

Conclusion:

This is the toy I used to play with every time. Most of the time, I play late at night too, my mother used to scold me often for this. I am crazy about this car.

Introduction:

When I was younger, I simply enjoyed playing with toys. As a consequence, my parents and other close family members gave me a toy for every birthday. Childhood is the most wonderful time in one's life, and memories from that time will always have a special place in my heart. A childhood toy is also precious. What could be more so?

What kind of toy is it?

The toy I like most is the playstation, which has lots of free video games. My fondness and love for this game started when I was in the age of 15. One of my friends has it. He used to say with pride that he has that game, it makes me feel low for that I don't have it.

When did you receive it?

When I was a teenager, my sister bought it for me. It is the first gift she gave me. It makes me happier when I receive it. Because I have been longing for this for so many days. It is the most favourite for me among all the gifts I got on that day.

How did you play it?

It is a video game, I connect it through television, mostly I used to play on weekends and in the holidays. I play at night time. Because my grandparents were there along with us they used to watch television for their time pass so they wont allow me to play during the day.

How did you feel about it?

I felt pride when I shared it with my friends, in front of the one who makes fun of us and says that he only has the playstation. I share it with my friends who doesn't have it, the smile in their face shows that how much they were happy, it makes me happy a more.

Conclusion:

Sharing is a good habit that every parent should teach their children.
