Movies are an important part of our lives, they make us smile when we are sad, and they are our great support when we want to be entertained. Welcome is a movie that made me laugh to the point of tears. Collaboration with Akshay Kumar, Anil Kapoor, Nana Patekar, and others.

When did you watch it?

I saw this movie in a theater first, and enjoyed it so much that I can't even describe it. Everything in the movie, for example, the dialogue, the actors were so humorous. I laughed and screamed at every punchline. The actors did an excellent job in the film. Everyone's comical timing was so perfect, it felt like the roles were made just for them.

The movie begins with Uday Shetty trying to find a suitable life partner for her sister, but because of her popularity, he doesn't even have a suitable half. Then our hero, Rajiv played by Akshay Kumar, steps in and falls in love with Sanjana without knowing that she is Don's sister. What happened next was a series of comedies and TV series.

Katrina Kaif is excellent as Don's older sister, and Akshay Kumar plays the iconic role of Rajiv perfectly. They are all good, but my favorite character in the movie is Majinu Bai played by Anil Kapoor. We loved the movie and my brothers even started impersonating the actors which was so much fun. The movie is so famous that we didn't want to see it at first, but we saw the trailer and loved it, decided to watch it, and thank goodness we did. The film is absolutely enjoyable and iconic at the same time. We are all happy.
